

Neuse Little Theatre's Summer Drama Program

Acting, Lighting, Set Design & Construction, Sound...
Interested? Neuse Little Theatre is looking for students (ages 8-18) to participate in the annual summer drama program.

When: June 17 – June 28, 2019

10am - 2pm

(Snack will be provided.)

Showcase performances will be

June 28 at 7pm

June 29 at 3pm & 7pm

(additional performances may be added if needed)

Students will learn acting techniques, technical skills, theatre terminology, and everything it takes to create the theatre experience. Everything learned will be showcased in a production at the end of the session.

The workshop will be conducted by Ruth Mills, who holds a Masters Degree in Educational Theatre from New York University. She is the former drama teacher at Smithfield-Selma High School where she had established a full curriculum in theatre, as well as directed plays. Ruth has worked with NLT for the past seventeen years as a director, and is a member of the Board of Directors.
