Audition/Presentation Instructions:

From the applications received, Neuse Little Theatre's John B. Kolcum Scholarship Committee will invite a limited number of finalists to audition and interview.

Guidelines for Audition (if planning on a performance based major in Theatre Arts)

For students with primary experience in performance, the audition will consist of a presentation of two contrasting monologues (one dramatic, one humorous) selected, memorized and prepared for performance by the student. (Performing pieces that are read rather than memorized, or simply submitting videotapes of scenes produced for high school plays is discouraged.)

Live or videotaped auditions must include the following:

1. A memorized speech from pre-twentieth century dramatic literature, such as a monologue taken from one of William Shakespeare's plays, no longer than four minutes in length or
A memorized contemporary piece of the student's choosing at least two minutes and no longer than five minutes (this piece may be an individual monologue or may be a dialogue performed with a partner)
2. Perform 16 bars of song with movement/dance (if theatre major involves musical theatre)

Guidelines for Presentation (if planning on a major in Technical Theatre Arts)

If the student's primary experience is in design/technical theatre, the auditions will consist of a four- or five-minute portfolio presentation in which the student will formally display and discuss his or her past work.

Criteria for Selection:

The John B. Kolcum Scholarship will be awarded based on the student's abilities as a performer, theatre technician or designer, as well as continued commitment to Theatre Arts.

The Scholarship recipient should:

1. Have and maintain a grade point average of 2.5 per term, 2.5 overall, and 3.0 in Drama courses.
2. Be planning to declare Theatre Arts as major.
3. Make a contribution (either on or back stage) to each production in the term (when allowed).
4. Be enrolled in at least one drama course (or prerequisite) per term.
